MAINE MEETS N.H. IN TOUGH STRUGGLE ON GRID SATURDAY

Favor's Injury Might Prevent Him from Going into Fracas This Week

The Black Bears will travel to Durham, New Hampshire, Saturday to engage the New Hampshire Wildcats eleven in a game which has all the earmarks of being a hum-dinger from start to finish. The Bricemen will attempt to take their hosts into camp so that they may be one step nearer the New England Conference title which will be defended by the Cowell coached team.

In spite of the fact that New Hampshire was handed an upset by Boston University in their initial encounter and was walloped by Harvard last week, the team is looking for a victory over Maine, since it would bring back the well nigh shattered confidence of the Cowellmen and make the remainder of the schedule look less like the suicide row it appears at present. Though the eleven has suffered two defeats, the New Hampshire cause has its brighter moments. Reserves have begun to gain experience as Ken McKiniry, center, brother of Don McKiniry who is a member of the Pale Blue track team, Stan Manning, guard and Jack Sweetser, end, all played well in the Harvard Stadium. And again the team is characteristically New Hampshire, slow starting but rolling along later in season.

It is unlikely that Maine's triple threat, Don Favor will see action on Saturday. Favor worked out with the football squad for the first time this week since his injury in the Connecticut game, but is not yet in good shape to take his place in the backfield. His punting and passing is bound to be missed in the Wildcat set-to.

The Bricemen have been brushing up on their defense against forward passes the major part of this week's practice, as New Hampshire is noted for their aerial game. The Pale Blue mentor has also given the team a few new plays which will be used for the first time this Saturday.

Maine's lineup for the tussle will be the same as against Holy Cross with the exception that John Wight will be at right guard instead of Morris Judd. The veteran guard bruised his knee in the first game with Rhode Island and remained on the sidelines until last week when he played in part of the encounter. His return to the front wall is due to strengthen the team which was outcharged by the Crusaders.

Novel Publication Due For Appearance Soon

One of the most interesting and novel publications that has ever been issued at the University will soon make its appearance on campus—namely, "Alumni Letters to Freshmen." This pamphlet has been compiled by Charles O'Connor, who was assistant to the Dean of Men last year, and who is continuing his studies at Yale University this year.

"Alumni Letters to Freshmen" consists of a number of letters that prominent members of the alumni have written to the freshman class. It contains personal messages from each, concerning vital problems about which they feel that every freshman should have a clear and concise knowledge.

Realizing that a freshman sees college life and its many activities from one angle, the seniors from another, and the grad from still another, it has been the aim of this pamphlet to acquaint the freshman with the views of the alumni on college life.

It touches upon nearly every phase—from athletics to military, and from the M.C.A. to the band, and every letter has been written by an alumnus who was an authority in his particular field.

The pamphlet is expected to be ready for distribution in a few days, and a copy will be distributed to every freshman.

Rachel Adams spent the week-end at her home in Ellsworth.

"AS HUSBANDS GO" FIRST MASQUE PLAY

To Be Presented Nov. 10 In Chapel. Cast Is Partially Chosen

The Maine Masque has chosen as its first play for the current season the comedy, As Husbands Go, by Rachel Crothers, which will be presented in the University Chapel November 10.

As Husbands Go was first produced in the John Golden theatre, New York City, where it enjoyed a great success. A comedy of modern life, it is a type of play which should appeal to a college audience.

Rehearsals for the play are starting immediately. The tentative cast is as follows: Lucile Lingard, Ernestine Merrill; Ronald Derbyshire, Kenneth Foster, Manley Kilgore, or Edward Little; Hippolitus Lomi, Edward Little or Alfred Sweeney; Maitre D'Hotel, John Farnsworth; Waiter, Stuart Mosher; Charles Lingard, Elston Ingalls; Christine, Alice Sisco; Peggy Sykes, Kitty Davis, Helen Findlay, Lucinda Ripley, or Dorothy Sawyer; Jake Canon, William Butler; Katie, Helen Buckner, or Lucinda Ripley.

Roland Hayes Sings At Annual Concert

Maine Festival Concert To Be Held October 26 with University Chorus Taking Part

Professor Sprague of the Department of Music, announced recently that the Maine Festival Concert is to be given on October 26 at the Bangor Auditorium with Roland Hayes, world renowned colored tenor, as the guest artist. The Bangor Symphony Orchestra, which is to play, is under the direction of Professor Sprague. The Festival Concert has tried for many years to engage Mr. Hayes, but until this year has been unsuccessful.

The University Chorus will be a part of the Eastern Maine Festival Chorus, a group of 3 or 4 hundred voices, whose feature number of the evening will be a scene from Coleridge-Taylor's "Hiawatha," from the famous Longfellow Indian poem. Mr. Hayes will sing the tenor role of this number.

During the program, Mr. Hayes will sing several groups of songs and the orchestra will offer several numbers. The University Chorus is working exclusively on the "Hiawatha" part, under the direction of Professor Sprague.

The event takes place on the eve of the Maine Teachers' Convention. Tickets will be one and two dollars.

UNIVERSITY MIGHT RECEIVE NEW FUND FOR A SCHOLARSHIP

Will of John M. Oak Provides $1500 Sum if Left at Decease of Widow

With the filing for probate of the will of the late John M. Oak, '73, of Bangor, last Friday, it was revealed that the University of Maine will probably receive a fund with which to establish a new scholarship, preferably for the advancement of the art of public speaking.

More specifically, the will provided as follows: If at the decease of his wife, and after payment of bequests, there shall remain a balance of not less than $1500 that sum is to be given in trust to the University of Maine to found a scholarship to be known as The John M. Oak Scholarship, the conditions of the benefit to students to be determined by the president and board of trustees of the University, but the testator desires that it be expended for advancement of the art of public speaking.

Mr. Oak was one of the foremost of the Maine alumni. He was always an ardent worker for his Alma Mater. He was a member of the committee which drew up the first constitution of the General Alumni Association. He was class secretary for twelve years, member of the Alumni Council for nine years, president of the General Alumni Association for four years, and Trustee of the University for seven years.

New Cannon Painted Gay Red While Campus Sleeps Monday

Like the freshmen, the old set of cannons, formerly a part of the armor of the frigate "Constitution," and mounted overlooking the Stillwater, have received their initiation into their first year of servitude on the campus.

Some artistically inclined students, returning from a late nocturnal escapade, applied their talents to the old guns, and when Tuesday's sun lighted up the college, they displayed in lavish decoration, all along their bronzed barrels, an unmistakable crimson red. But not only were the cannons themselves attired in the scarlet paint, but the artists' work also

Bucher Speaks on Goethe And on Germany of Today

John George Bucher, F.R.G.S., spoke at the Monday assembly on the poet Goethe, who died one hundred years ago this year. Slides were shown illustrating the important places and people who influenced the poet's life. Goethe was said to be the greatest man in all German history. He was a director of mines, artist, writer, statesman, scientist, roadbuilder and king's counselor.

Mr. Bucher delivered an illustrated lecture on "Germany of Today," in the evening. Both motion pictures and slides were used throughout the program. The pictures covered many phases of German life, the architecture, art, recreation, and the people themselves.

Emily Thompson '33 Makes Excellent Time Climbing Mt. Katahdin Saturday

Emily Thompson '33, set what is believed to be a record when she climbed Mount Katahdin by the way of Parsons Trail to Monument Peak, over the Knife Edge and down the Dudley Trail in three hours on the Phi Sigma trip Saturday.

Setting out at 7:30 Saturday morning, a party of 13 migrated to the Northern part of the State. At Millinocket preparations were made for the drive over 19 miles of woods roads. After two hours Rum Brook was reached where it was found the bridge was out. Packs were strapped on and the ambitious band started out. At Windy Pitch, a distance of three and a half miles, lunch was served.

When the repast was finished, up drove the chaperons who had waited until the road was passable. For the next two miles, a rough lumber road was followed to Roaring Brook.

A fallen tree afforded the transportation. From then on for six miles a narrow, rocky trail uphill, over brooks and logs led to Dudley's Camp at Chimney Pond. Emily Thompson and Helen

GOV.-ELECT BRANN TO BE SPEAKER ON HOMECOMING WEEK

Second Annual Gathering of Maine Alumni To Be Oct. 28, 29

Hon. Louis J. Brann, governor-elect of Maine and graduate of the University in the class of 1898 is to be the speaker at the Alumni Homecoming luncheon which is to be held at the University of Maine October 29 according to an announcement made today by Professor Charles P. Weston '96, chairman of the Homecoming Committee.

This will be the second annual Homecoming luncheon and will be in the nature of a tribute in honor of the distinguished guest and alumnus of the University. It is expected alumni and faculty will attend in large numbers. Last year at the first alumni luncheon at which Dr. R. H. Fernald, dean of the University of Pennsylvania Engineering School was the speaker it was impossible to accommodate all who wished to attend. It will be necessary to make reservations for this luncheon.

Dr. H. S. Boardman, president of the University, will preside. Dr. Boardman was a senior at the time Mr. Brann was a freshman at the University.

The Homecoming program will begin Friday, October 28, and continue through Saturday afternoon concluding with the Colby-Maine football game.

DR. MUILENBURG TO ADDRESS TEACHERS

Speech Will Be New Dean's First to Alumni Of Maine

Dr. James H. Muilenburg, new dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Maine, is to be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Maine Teachers' Alumni Association to be held October 27 in Bangor according to an announcement made by William D. Hall, principal of the Eastern State Normal School and president of the Association. This will be Dean Muilenburg's first address to alumni of the University, and it seems particularly appropriate that it should be to those alumni who are engaged in or interested in teaching.

The Association is to have headquarters during the Teachers' Convention in room 110, Bangor High School, where alumni may meet and procure information and tickets concerning meeting. Howard S. Emery '23 of Bangor High School faculty is chairman of the local committee making arrangements for the banquet which will be held at six o'clock Thursday, October 27, in the main hall of the Dorothy Memorial Hall in Bangor. Other members of the committee serving with Mr. Emery are Rachel Connor '22, dean of women Bangor High School, and Clarine Coffin '32, teacher of English in Bangor High School.

The officers of the Association besides Mr. Hall are Joseph B. Chaplin '21, vice-president, principal of Newport High School; Sadie J. Thompson '29 treasurer, teacher in Old Town High School; and C. E. Crossland '17, secretary, Orono, Secretary of the General Alumni Association.

Ermo Scott To Lead Singing at Assembly

Assembly next week will be used largely for singing Maine songs under the direction of Ermo Scott '31, who is well known as a successful song leader. The Assembly will be in the nature of a rally in preparation for the State Series.

Mr. Scott, during his undergraduate days was a leader in the musical life on the campus and has led singing on several occasions since graduation. He is now a teacher at the Eastern State Normal School in Castine. His vigorous leadership together with pleasing personality assures another pleasant "Song Assembly" as in the past.

It is expected the band will be present to add "pep" to the occasion. A similar assembly has been arranged each of the last two years under the auspices of the General Alumni Association. Although song sheets will be furnished, those who own song books are urged to bring them.

FRESHETTES TO HUNT SOPHETTES SATURDAY

"A-hunting we will go, a-hunting we will go," "Says who?" say the freshman co-eds. What's the quarry? The sophomores.

Yes, girls, there's going to be a good old hare and hound chase. Saturday morning at ten-thirty o'clock the sophomore girls are going to lead the freshmen a merry chase. Where they'll end up cannot be said. But this much is certain. There'll be just oodles of steaming hot chowder with all the fixings. Moreover, the juniors and seniors will be there to furnish entertainment. Perhaps it will be found out that even eagles can't escape the fangs of a hungry hound.

PRESIDENT IS HEAD OF COMMITTEE ON DEPRESSION EFFECT

Chosen Chairman of National Committee on Situation With Depression

President Harold S. Boardman of the University of Maine was recently appointed chairman of a committee of nine members to study the effect of the depression on land grant colleges and universities. The appointment was made by the chairman of the executive committee of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities, an organization made up of fifty-one land grant institutions, forty-eight in the United States, one in Alaska, one in Hawaii, and one in Porto Rico.

President Boardman has composed a questionnaire which has been sent to each of the fifty-one colleges and universities, and the information received from them will be compiled and Dr. Boardman will report on the material at the meeting of the Board in Washington on November 14, 15, 16.

The entire committee is made up of President Boardman, chairman; President C. A. Lory, State Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Colorado; President J. J. Tigert, University of Florida; President Alfred Atkinson, Montana State College; Chancellor E. A. Burnett, University of Nebraska; President J. A. Burroughs, Virginia Polytechnic Institute; President T. C. Walton, Texas A. and M. College; Dean C. F. Curtiss, Iowa State College, and Dean E. C. Johnson, State College of Washington.

The men chosen for the investigation were selected from all over the country. Those who finally received appointments were considered by the organization to be men best located and in the best position to investigate the situation.

Initial Matches In Tennis Played Off

10 Highest Finishes Give Winners Berth on Varsity Squad for Spring Tennis Meets

The 1932 Fall Tennis Tournament is well under way, with most of the first round matches completed. Twenty-nine men have entered the tournament. Coach Small regards this as a very satisfactory turnout, in view of the fact that other fall sports have claimed the attention of many tennis men.

The tournament is a preliminary for the selection of next year's varsity team as the ten men finishing highest will be retained on the squad next spring. No prizes are to be given to the winners.

It is hoped that space for an indoor court may be obtained for the use of varsity candidates during the winter, so that they may be in condition for the first match of the season, which will take place about the first of May. Those who signified their intention of going out for the varsity team would be excused from physical training.

The tournament draw was as follows: Lampropoulos vs. Brooks, Cameron vs. Burns, Knowlton vs. Bunker, Fuller vs. Ashworth, Captain vs. Berry, Higgins vs. Matchett, Little vs. Wadleigh, Butler vs. Soule, Copeland vs. Martin, Turbyne vs. Field, Rottenberg vs. Adams, Hinckley vs. Hirschen, Homonoff vs. Aldrich. Pendell, Frost, and Hamilton drew byes.

In the first round matches played thus far, the winners were Lampropoulos, Cameron, Bunker, Matchett, Wadleigh, Butler, Rottenberg, and Homonoff.

EIGHT BECOME PLEDGED TO KAPPA GAMMA PHI

Eight men were pledged to Kappa Gamma Phi, local honorary journalistic fraternity, at a meeting held in the Campus office Tuesday night. Following the pledging, plans for the coming high school journalistic conference, which will be held at the University of Maine on November 18 and 19, were discussed.

The pledges include: Brice H. Jose, George E. Osgood, Wilbert Pronovost, Raymond H. Gailey, Philip G. Pendell, Roy J. Gavin, George Carlisle, and C. Alvin Jagles.

Keith "Toots" Goldsmith, U. of M. '25, has returned to Orono, where he is manager of the Strand Theatre after spending the past eight years in New York City.

Mild Vandalism

The painting of the cannons, recently installed on the campus, which occurred Monday night, is vandalism in a mild form. It is true that when the work was discovered on Tuesday morning there were plenty of smiles, but nevertheless the practice of defacing anything on the campus should be discouraged.

It may be that the person or persons who did the painting did it merely as a prank, or it may be that it was done because the perpetrators of the deed disapproved of the looks of the cannon. If it was a prank, such pranks should not be looked upon lightly by the student body. If it was an expression of disapproval, it was the wrong method of expressing disapproval.

Some years ago painting of buildings with class numerals or "pep" inscriptions for coming games was quite prevalent. These signs, always crudely done, were painfully reminiscent of the painting of signs on a back fence by small boys, who have in some manner procured some paint, a brush, and a fence. Undoubtedly students at Maine do not want to slip back into the class of such boys.

Let us remember in the future, then, that there are always plenty of ways in which to procure enjoyment without spoiling property or incurring expense.

About the Honor System

To the Editor of the Campus
Dear Sir:

I was very sorry to hear that you have been advocating the adoption of the so-called Honor System by the students of the University of Maine. It seems impossible that you can have fully considered the consequences of such an innovation or the difficulties that confront its supporters.

When you think of the countless undergraduates whose very lives depend on their grades here, it shows that you have either a hard heart or a mushy brain if you expect them to give up their aids to memory.

Ask a man to take full responsibility for his own work or lack of work—the idea is revolutionary. You expect our undergraduates to act like reasoning beings, like full-grown men. You want him to study enough throughout the year to have a decent mastery of the principles involved in the course, so that when finals come he will be able to pass by his own efforts. Preposterous!

And besides, you think cribbing is wrong. Don't you know that a cribber is sure to remember the points on which he cribbed long after he has forgotten the course and its usefulness? If only we could arrange to have everyone crib the whole of all his courses the problem of perfect instruction would be solved in an instant.

And you say that cribbing is dishonest. Sheer twaddle, my good man. What if it is? Let us admit that the one who cheats is thereby kicking the honest man in the slats when he is down. Who cares about the honest man? Let him crib for himself, and if he is too decent to do it, raus mit ihm. Suppose the cheater is endangering the college career of the kind-hearted sap-headed nitwit who helps him; suppose he is robbing his future employer through false pretenses to intelligence. Who cares? We never met his future employer—he's no special friend of ours. Think of all the heartbreaking hours of study we have saved. Surely you must know that nothing is really dishonest if

Ruth Walenta Is W.S.C.M. Delegate

The Maqua Regional Council met at Bates last Saturday and Sunday. This council represents the Women's Student Christian Movement in sixteen New England colleges and normal schools. The council discussed some problems common to most of the campuses represented, and made plans for the program, date, and leaders of the regional conference which will be held at Poland, Maine next June. The council also strongly recommended that this conference take a definite stand, from a Christian viewpoint, on the major social issues in conflict at that time, and should make public this stand.

Those present at the meetings were: Miss Katherine Duffield, National Secretary for the Maqua Region; Mildred Moyer, Bates, President; Ada Berning, Simmons; Edna Dickey, New Hampshire University; Olive Grover, Bates; Anna Hamlin, Gorham Normal School; Ruth Walenta, University of Maine; and Anna McPhee, College of Liberal Arts, Boston University.

VARSITY HARRIERS TO TAKE ON WILD CATS

The Varsity Cross Country team will journey to Durham on Saturday where it will compete against the University of New Hampshire. This will be the first meet for the Maine squad. The New Hampshire team held its first meet last Saturday, and obtained a perfect score over its opponent, Northeastern University.

The time trials held last Saturday determined the members who will make the trip to Durham. The first seven men to finish in the trials are the ones who make up the squad. They are K. Black, L. Jackson, W. Cole, R. Shaw, R. Fuller, R. Wishart, and D. Corbett. Because of an ulcerated tooth, Harry Booth was unable to compete in the trials. However, he will be given a special trial this week, and if he is in good shape at that time, he will probably run in place of one of the men already mentioned.

On October 28, in connection with the program of the physical education section of the Maine State Teachers' Convention, held in Bangor, exhibition games in a number of sports will be given on the campus. Teams of Maine girls will play field hockey and basketball, the latter particularly for demonstration of the new rules. Girls from Bates and Colby will be guests and will demonstrate track for girls and speed-ball.

Many hockey enthusiasts among Maine alumnae will welcome the announcement of a Maine-Alumnae game. On October 29 the Alumnae, a number of whom are already getting in some practice, will meet a team composed of Maine girls.

During the Teachers' Convention held in Bangor October 26, 27 and 28, Miss Anne Hodgins, traveling secretary of the women's division of the National Amateur Athletic Association, will be the speaker in the department of physical education. She is also scheduled to speak on this campus during the convention on the women's activities in the Olympic Games which were held in California this summer.

And not only are you advocating this idiotic system, but you and Mr. Jose and the rest of the impractical dreamers think you can make a go of it. Can't you see the thing won't do? It's theoretically a pretty little scheme, but we can't touch it here.

You think that, because it has been a success wherever it has been tried, we can parade about disguised as mature human beings. Mr. Jose, on the grounds that others have done it, thinks it possible for us to stop cribbing and crabbing and go to work like intelligent people. Don't you and he and the others of your cohorts know that we of Maine are different, that whatever is a rousing success elsewhere is sure to be a flat failure when the Mainiacs try it?

That, dear Editor, is why I was sorry to hear you support this folderol. It's not that I have anything against the honor system; I was concerned only for your own good. You'll be labelled a dreamer—though you paint a wonderful dream. To think of fifteen hundred or so students having will power enough to form a self-governing body and sufficient intellectual pride to scorn slipshod flimsy work, to think of a faculty so relieved from police duty that it can teach as it has always wanted to teach—the whole thing is too attractive.

You know yourself that the adoption of the honor system would probably be as long a stride forward as ever the student body of this university has taken. I only wish you could convince the rest of the undergraduates; and I have a sneaking suspicion that if you keep on talking, you may yet wake us up to reality.

Your devoted admirer,
Arthur Brown

The fall meeting of the New England section of the Society for Promotion of Engineering Education was held at the University of Maine October 8. The morning was devoted to registration and inspection of the campus and engineering laboratories by the visiting representatives. At noon, a complimentary luncheon was held in Merrill Hall for the members of the Society, guests, and friends.

At 2:00 P.M. in 305 Aubert Hall, R. E. Doherty, Professor of Electrical Engineering at Yale University, spoke on "Greater Emphasis upon Scientific Thinking," followed by a speech on "A Critical Examination of our Present Scheme of Examinations" by Vaunear Bush, vice-president and Dean of Engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The afternoon program was completed by a bridge party given in Merrill Hall by the ladies of the faculty to the visiting ladies. In the evening, a banquet was held at the Bangor House where an address was delivered by Professor Huddleston on the "Engineer's Responsibilities to the New Architecture."

All students are cordially invited to attend services at Fellowship Church which meet in the Orono Community House each Sunday at 10:30 A.M. ## First Frosh Game Is Scoreless Tie

The University of Maine Freshmen held the strong Bridgton Academy eleven to a scoreless tie in their opening game of the season, Saturday afternoon at Alumni Field.

The game, unusually drab and colorless, saw neither team seriously threaten the opposing goal. Early in the first quarter Bridgton advanced the ball to the Frosh 28 yard stripe, but the Maine line, though ragged and ineffective against the first few plays, held to take the ball on downs. Never again were the visitors able to penetrate beyond the yearling 40 yard marker. The Frosh's only opportunity for a score came in the last few minutes of the game when Foley, rangy end, pulled down a Bridgton lateral in his own territory, to break into the clear at midfield. He was tackled from behind on the visitors' 45 yard line, and the Frosh lost the ball when Mill's pass on the next play was intercepted by a Bridgton back.

During the fourth quarter, with a tie game in prospect, both teams took to the air with reckless abandon, completing only one of nine attempted passes. Fumbles were frequent throughout the entire four periods, and both elevens received repeated penalties.

The kicking of Megan, Bridgton quarter whose work in this department was particularly outstanding, and the failure of Frosh backs to function at decisive moments succeeded in permanently keeping the yearlings from the visiting goal. On the kickoff in the second half, Adams ran the ball thirty yards from his own ten yard stripe, but three successive line bucks failed and the Freshmen were forced to kick out of danger. Downie earlier scored a twenty yard gain for the Maine eleven.

For the Frosh the work of Costa and Doherty in the line was impressive while Pruett conducted himself capably at quarterback.

The MAINE SNOOPUS

THEY climbed the highest mountain 'cause they knew that when they climbed that mountain they'd find fun, and they found it, did the members of that Phi Sigma party....the co-eds on the trip were thrilled to tears when they discovered a camp occupied by eleven M.I.T. men and they neglected the Maine mountaineers who represented the bearded half of the student body....Smith (B flat) Ames must be a softy. Imagine taking a bright colored pair of pajamas on a camping trip....Nuff for Katahdin, so say we all, Amos Tasch of Upperlip, Ohio, is visiting with Red (Manassa) Hagan, the terror of the campus....An' last Thoisday nite, lil Betty Barrows was walking to the Libe when a big brute of a tree slapped her right in the face....The A. T. O.'s seem to be having a lot of fun with their new house. When friend room-mate locks the door to the room and runs off with the key the only way to get into the room seems to be with the aid of a ladder, thereby providing much fun for bystanders....The Apple Tree Operators also seem to be having a lot of fun since Hoby Chase has lost his heart....An' those awful frosh, they are helping to keep the depression here, and are incurring the wrath of the medical profession. It's an underhanded profession of theirs, when they buy a great big basket of apples and give them away free each day, one to a student....Well, lil Sammy, the freshman, sort of lost his bearings down in the big city the other night, an' guess what he did. He found he couldn't get back to the campus without walking, so he went to the police station and asked for a bed, and got it....He's the lad who discovered that c-a-t-t-l-e means Cows....Red Walton has become a gentleman, according to tradition, he has changed his affections from a brunette to a blonde....Much comment has reached our ears about Buddy Boyle who is that way about a little lady and holds hands on the campus....It's pretty bad for a first year man in a fraternity house to steal an upperclassman's lady friend, but that is what happened recently when Earl (Passion) Stone alienated the affections of the sweetheart of one of his fraternity brothers....One little sophette was in a deeficult position last week-end when Gordon (Hap) Hayes arrived on the campus unexpectedly, and found that his campus sweetheart had a date for another party....Oh my, my, my, these big brutish owls, Mr. Hoyt found a snake last week and had a swell time scaring freshmen with it....We're trying to figure out what Sigma Mooooo Sigma means by "the person who arrives at the psychological moment."

EAGLES TAKE FROSH TO PINEY KNOLL THURS.

The Sophomore Eagles gathered together their "prey" (Freshmen, in case you didn't guess) late last Thursday afternoon, and carried them away to their nest (Piney Knoll), where they fed the "children." Using twigs, in quite the rustic manner, the Sophomores and Freshmen fried "weenies," ate doughnuts, and drank cider. Unfortunately, the appetites of the "wee" Freshmen were not duly anticipated, because reinforcements had to be sent for.

Gathered around the brisk fire, the upperclassmen sang, after which Ruth Todd played the "Stein Song." And then with the sound of "Taps" ringing in their ears, the party disbanded.

HECK CLUB SPONSORS STAG DANCE FRIDAY

The Heck Club held a successful Stag Dance on Friday night.

The first ten girls there were admitted free of charge. Among those who arrived in time to have their fifty cents were Winifred Cushing, Rosemary Boardman, Abbie Sargent, Marguerite Young and Marion Graham.

Smith Ames furnished the music and every one supposedly had a "Heck" of a good time, especially the many people who crashed after intermission.

Evelyn "String" Randall, Chi Omega, who graduated last June, and who has been employed at the Methodist Episcopal Hospital Research Laboratory for the past summer, has accepted a position at the Brady Memorial Laboratory at Yale College.

Kappa Sigma entertained at a Vic party Friday night with nine couples present. Mrs. Annie Webster chaperoned. Marcus Hallenbeck and Selwyn Chipman were in charge.

Mrs. Mary Love Collins, national president of Chi Omega sorority, was at the University last Friday, as she is making informal visits to all New England chapters of that sorority.

A Vic party was held at A.T.O. Friday with Mrs. Wing as chaperon. Ten couples were present. The social committee was comprised of Romeo Pascarelli, Donald Ring, and Llewellyn Stearns.

SIGMA MU SIGMA TO HOLD UNUSUAL DANCE

Sigma Mu Sigma, honorary psychology society, will hold another of its unusual stag dances in Alumni Hall tomorrow night. The dance promises to be one of the most unusual of the season, for a prize will be given to the person arriving at the psychological moment, as well as prizes for novelty dances. Smith Ames' orchestra will furnish the music for the affair.

Thirty Phi Mu's were entertained Monday evening at the home of Miss Shirley Young in honor of her sister's, Mrs. Linwood Bowen, recent marriage. A short business meeting preceded the social evening. Silver was presented to Mrs. Bowen by the sorority president, Lucia Umphrey. Refreshments were served.

Six of last year's Sophomore Eagles held a reunion at Mildred Haney's camp in Orrington over the week-end. Among those present were: Alice Dyer, Doris Newman, Shirley Young, Winifred Cushing, Fern Allen, and Mildred Haney.

The girls of Delta Zeta Sorority entertained on October 4, 5, and 6 Mrs. Georgia Lee Hornung of Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Hornung was sent to Alpha Upsilon chapter of Delta Zeta as a representative of National Delta Zeta.

Mrs. Howard Hornung, a visiting officer of Delta Zeta sorority, was a guest of the local chapter from Tuesday to Thursday of last week.

Miss Wilma Perkins, '35, received her pledge pin at a pledge service held by Alpha Omicron Pi at the home of Ruth Barrows last Monday night.

Romansky Runs 80 Yards for Maine's Only Score; Crusaders Outrushed 6 Yards by Bears

The Pale Blue gridiron squad met its first defeat of the season last Saturday when Holy Cross rolled up a score of 32-6 against Maine's hard-fighting team. However, Maine outrushed her opponents by six yards, making 258 to the Crusaders' 252 yards.

"Mun" Romansky starred for the visitors when he broke through the line and ran 80 yards for Maine's only score of the game.

LEE TRIMS FROSH A HARRIERS; B TEAM PINS DEFEAT ON BREWER

A polished Lee Academy cross country outfit outran the Frosh harriers A team over the Orono course Tuesday, with a perfect score of 15 to 43.

Lee ran five men over the finish tape with a wide berth which was attained soon after the mile mark and carried thru to decisive victory. Fast sprints at the finish failed to roll up the score for the Maine runners. Cobb of Lee Academy led the field home in 15 minutes 8 seconds.

First, G. Cobb (L); second, B. Cobb (L); third, Stevens (L); fourth, Tinkham (L); fifth, Turner (L); sixth, Prince (M); seventh, O'Connor (M); eighth, Merrill (L); ninth, Ireland (M); tenth, Dionne (M); eleventh, Beal (M); twelfth, Foss (L).

The Frosh B team followed up the first team defeat by taking over Brewer High runners over the same course, 25 to 31.

Both teams running close were led over the finish line by R. Mayo, Brewer sophomore, with a time of 16 minutes 2 seconds. Maine was close, taking second, third, and fifth places.

First, Mayo (B); second, Ives (M); third, Weston (M); fourth, Smith (B); fifth, Cameron (M); sixth, Huff (M); seventh, King (B); eighth, Grindle (B); ninth, Clarke (M); tenth, Hershon (M); eleventh, Barry (B); twelfth, Bragdon (B).

SPORTS SPIELS

By BOB BERG

The Crusaders of Holy Cross filled the Steins to dear old Maine with sour beer, a beer which did not set well in the stomach of the Black Bear last Saturday as the Bricemen were handed a 32-6 licking. However, the game was more closely fought than the score indicates.

If Maine overcomes New Hampshire at the latter's gridiron Saturday, then it will practically assure the Pale Blue of winning the New England Conference Title which is at present held by the Wildcat eleven. Included in the conference are Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut Aggies, and Massachusetts State.

The Black Bears have already defeated the Rhode Island Rams and the Connecticut Nutmegs which actually leaves only New Hampshire to account for. Mass. State has an exceptionally weak team as it was given a terrific lacing by Bowdoin, who in turn is regarded as the weakest eleven in the state. Provided Maine takes New Hampshire into camp, it will have to defeat Bowdoin to gain full possession of the title by the law of deduction.

For the last three years the Wildcat team has been a jinx to the Bricemen, but this season at least in your humble scribe's opinion, Maine appears to be able to have the strength to end the jinx. Both schools are traditional football rivals with Maine holding the advantage of 12 victories to New Hampshire's 6, while two tussles resulted in tie scores.

Sympathies extended to Coach Chester Jenkins. It certainly must have been a bitter pill for the cross country mentor to swallow as he watched his freshman team A completely whitewashed by Lee Academy. This was the initial defeat

The Intramural touch football program for 1932 opened last week. This year the teams are twenty-one in number and are divided into the southern and northern leagues.

The following teams are included in the southern league: Sigma Chi, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Kappa, Phi Eta Kappa, Alpha Gamma Rho, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa, Phi Mu Delta, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Lambda Chi Alpha.

The northern league is made up of the Sigma Nu, Dorm B, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Phi Sigma, Tau Epsilon Phi, Delta Tau Delta, Theta Chi, Dorm A, Beta Theta Pi, Oak Hall, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Mildred Moyes went to her home in Lewiston for the week-end.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies . . . the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, the he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
